The questioning of Jesus’s _____ is the focus of our text this morning.

When the Scribes and Pharisees ask their question, they are referring to the total of Jesus’s _____.

This question was not a curious question, rather it was a question of hostility, anger, and had as its end goal the _____ of Jesus by His answer.

The repulsion and aversion to God’s authority is not _____, rather it is _____ to us all.

Within us all, there is naturally, a heart and _____ to spurn and refuses the Lord’s authority in our lives.

We are all under _____ - something is always leading, guiding, and dictating how we live.

Scripture tells us that - _____ - none of us are free. We are all slaves and bound to the authority of something.

We are either slaves to _____ or slaves to _____.

True _____ is found in submission to Jesus’s authority and not rebellion from it.

A person that says, “I want a savior but not a Lord...I want a Jesus that dies for me but not a Jesus who tells me how to live” doesn’t understand true freedom and doesn’t know the _____.

The believer must also be aware of this because, on this side of Heaven, the invitation and urge to question _____ authority still rages in our hearts too.

We never outgrow our need for the _____ and must always keep coming back to the work of Christ and our belief in Him.

Application (Take Home Truths)

There is nothing that we can do to make ourselves cease to be slaves to sin. This is an act of the gospel and a work of the Spirit to open our eyes to see and our ears to hear the gospel of Jesus.

Accepting Jesus’s free offer of grace and forgiveness means coming under God’s authority - His rule, reign, Lordship - and submitting to the ways He has called you to live. This is the only path to true freedom.

When we believe in Christ and trust Him to save us, we are no longer ruled by our flesh that rebels against God instead, we are enabled by God to live lives that are pleasing to Him - lives that produce the true fruit of worship: joy - peace - patience - kindness - goodness - faithfulness - gentleness - and self-control.

LOVE. GROW. COMMIT. GO.

For freedom Christ has set us free; stand firm therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.

Youth Fundraising UPDATE!- As always you have stepped in generously and paid the way for all of the students and adult volunteers to attend Crossing Camp in July! We are absolutely overwhelmed by the outpouring of generosity you have shown! The Lord has shown his excellent goodness through you. Thank you so much for supporting the youth of FBC.

If you had planned to give, but have not yet, please do consider still supporting the youth. The expenses of camp have been covered, but there are other activities we would like to have throughout the summer that will require money. Every penny given will be used to serve the youth of FBC and the community as we seek to grow in our relationship with Christ!

Thank you for always supporting the youth as they grow in their relationship with Christ.
